HONG KONG CLIPPER ARRIVES AT KAI TAK

New Landing Apparatus Tested

Quite a number of people went to Kai Tak Air Port yesterday afternoon to see the Hong Kong Clipper arrive, and assembled at the slipway-office to wait for her.

Visibility was bad, and rain fell heavily, while the distant hills were obscured by wreaths of dense cloud but punctually at the appointed time the sound of her engines was heard. However just at that moment there was an exceptionally heavy rain-squall and the pilot (Captain C. G. Sellers) decided to wait till it was over, and the Hong Kong Clipper circled away waiting for the weather to clear.

Half-an-hour later the sky brightened and the Clipper was sighted flying low over Lyemun.

About a mile away from Kai Tak she swooped gracefully down and made a perfect landing.

Several notable passengers had made the trip, and reported good weather all the way until reaching Macao. Among them was that well-known figure Captain Musick, who was responsible for most of the "survey-flights" and who piloted the Clipper on her first trip from America to Manila.

Other notable passengers were Mr. Lam Wai Sing who is the new Managing Director of C.N.A.C., and Mr. H. M. Bixby the Vice-President of Pan-American Airways.

The Clipper also carried a lady passenger, Mrs. Homan, wife of the Professor of Economics at the Hornell University, who has "come

Sir Ian Hamilton's Complaint

LEGIONARIES CONFER AT ST. ANDREWS

"Do the Government want to make their Infantry of the Line invisible on parades? The object of khaki is to make people invisible!"

This comment was made by General Sir Ian Hamilton, G.C.B., when he was addressing the delegates attending the annual conference of the British Legion (Scotland) at St. Andrews.

"As old soldiers," Sir Ian said, "you can help our serving Scottish regiments very much by expressing in your own areas our grievances on the dress question. When the King goes to the Palace of Holyroodhouse the Greys will turn out a Sovereign's escort in full dress—provided at their own expense. The Scots Guards, who are coming up, will also be in full dress—provided by Government."

BIG YEAR FOR BOY SCOUTS

World Jamboree In Holland

Two great events which will go down in the annals of International Scouting are to take place this summer.

The first event, which takes place this month, is the American Scouts Silver Jubilee Jamboree at Washington, which although a National celebration tends to the International aspect by having representatives of several foreign countries present. Great Britain is sending a contingent of 54.

The second event is the World Scout Jamboree which takes place in Holland in August. A World Jamboree is held every four years, to bring together Scouts from all corners of the earth. The Scouts gather in one huge camp, there is no distinction whatsoever; it is a camp which breeds the spirit of world peace. 8,000 will represent the British Empire.

BAG SNATCHING IN KOWLOON

European Lady Victimised

About 2.10 p.m. last night, when Mrs. E. L. Spradley was standing outside the Alhambra Theatre waiting for a bus on Nathan Road, a man, Yeung Fo, aged 32, unemployed, came up from behind her, snatched her bag, and ran away.

Sgt. Goldie, of the Central Police Station, who was also waiting for a bus in the same place, turned round and chased the robber over some waste ground past the Blue Taxi Cab Company into Market Street where he arrested the alleged thief.

CORONATION GROVE AT WINDSOR

KING SETS IMPERIAL EXAMPLE

ON THE AFTERNOON OF JUNE 19, THE KING PLANTED IN WINDSOR GREAT PARK THE FIRST OF 60 OAKS WHICH ARE TO FORM A CORONATION MEMORIAL GROVE. THE OTHER OAKS WERE PLANTED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE EMPIRE.

The King planted the first of 60 oak trees, which are to form a Coronation grove in Windsor Great Park. His Majesty with the Queen, Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

The grove is situated between Royal Lodge and Smith's Lawn. The King's oak stands at the head of the north end, and a little in front, and to the left of it is the oak planted by Sir Samuel Hoare, representing the United Kingdom.

The positions of the other trees in relation to this latter tree correspond as far as possible with the geographical situation of the territories that they represent to the United Kingdom. Thus the Canadian tree is to the west of the oak representing the home country, that of Gibraltar is a little to the south, and farthest away to the south is the oak of New Zealand.

ROYALTY AT THE TATTOO CHEERED BY 77,000 PEOPLE

When the King and Queen attended the final performance of the Aldershot Tattoo, they were cheered all the way from Windsor to Aldershot as their car drove through the mass of traffic. With the G.O.C., General Sir Francis Gathorne-Hardy, the King and Queen drove into the arena a few minutes before the performance began, and as their car circled slowly round, the volume of cheering from the 77,000 people present filled the air. The King and Queen walked up to the Royal box between a double line of Scots Guards forming a guard of honour.

THE WEATHER

A report issued by the Royal Observatory states that a further 1.04 inches of rain were recorded during the 24 hours ended at 10 a.m. yesterday. This brings the year's total to 42.42 inches, against an average of 41.25.

Tuesday's maximum temperature was 85, with a night minimum of 75, the same figure in each instance as on the previous day. Yesterday at 10 a.m. the temperature was 85, or two degrees lower than at the same hour the day before, with humidity down to 77, or ten degrees below that of Tuesday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 89 degs; this reading being taken at noon. The highest temperature on July 7, 1936 was 80.7 degs, and the lowest 75.4 degs.

London Film Sensation

London, July 7.
Insurance companies will have to pay over £100,000 costs for the film "I Claudius" which, owing to a motor accident to the leading lady, the famous film star Marie Oberon, could only be half finished.

Under the terms of their contract the insurance companies must reimburse all expenses incurred by the production of the film. It is stated that the sum in question is the largest ever paid by insurance companies for an uncompleted film.

Marie Oberon was born in Tasmania in 1911 and came to London to play in "Service for Ladies". She appeared in the role of Ann Bolyn in "The Private Life of Henry the Eighth" with Charles Laughton, who has the leading masculine role in "I Claudius". The producers to star under Korda and the film was being made at Danm.

THEFT AT CEMETERY

Desecration Of Graves

At the Central Magistracy yesterday, charges of the desecration of two graves at Kai Lung Wan cemetery and the theft of three gold teeth and a jade bangle from two dead bodies, were brought against four men, Lau Shiu, 29, Chau Ngau, Cheuk Wan, 40, and Yeung Fan, 28, all unemployed. Mr. W. Schofield, took the case.

The first three accused admitted stealing, but fourth defendant said he had no share in the matter.

Detective-Sergeant C. Mortram, who prosecuted, said that the grave robbing commenced during the last Ching Ming festival. The complainant, Chau Kim-pak, master of the Chau Kong Hing furniture shop in Kowloon, was visiting the graves of his parents, who had died in 1930, when he was approached by first accused, who reminded him that it was time the remains were exhumed, and asked complainant if he desired the Government or him and his folks to do the work. Defendants usually remained near the cemetery offering to do such work.

Complainant said he would see about it, and told first defendant to visit him at his shop. On June 23, first and fourth defendants went to see complainant, and finally agreed to do the work of exhuming for $12, to be paid to first accused after the work had been completed. Before leaving, first accused asked for $3, which he said were necessary to obtain exhumation permits and other expenses. As a matter of fact, added the Sergeant, the permits were issued free by the authorities.

Sergeant Mortram concluded by saying that there was no evidence of theft against fourth accused except the word of his accomplices, and he did not think it was worth while proceeding further against him.

His Worship agreed and discharged fourth accused. He remanded the other accused for two days, in order that they might raise $14 as compensation for complainant.

RESCUE AT SEA

Dramatic Z.B.W. Message

The revelation of the story of the rescue of the four men, victims of a typhoon junk disaster, by the J.C.L. liner Tjisondari, was the remarkable result of a message broadcast from Z.B.W. on Tuesday night, asking all ships in the vicinity of Chiling Point, famous for piracy, to be on the look-out for possible survivors of the junk, which was battered to pieces in the typhoon on Sunday.

For quite a while, the survivors were in such a state of exhaustion that they could not relate the circumstances of the disaster, but later, one recovered sufficiently to tell the officers of the ship that they were survivors of a large junk, with a crew of twenty, which had been wrecked during the recent typhoon.

They had been in the water for almost two days before they were rescued by the Tjisondari. One of them, it is learned, died on the ship which was bound for Amoy.

A PERSISTENT OFFENDER

With four previous convictions for stealing and three for breach of the Deportation Ordinance, an unemployed youth, Leung Yu, aged 25, again appeared before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of larceny, committed on June 23 at a store house at Kowloon City Market. For the theft he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

Prior to the conviction he was committed to stand trial at the next Criminal Sessions for the breach of Deportation Ordinance.

HEROIN PILLS

A sentence of two months' imprisonment was passed on Ng Sing, married woman, when she appeared before Mr. K. Keen yesterday on the charge of possession of heroin pills at the Yaumatei ferry wharf.

SOLDIERS IN COURT

Taxi-Driver Assaulted

Charges of assaulting Tong Chun, aged 33, a taxicab driver, in Gloucester Road outside the Dreamland Dance Hall on Tuesday were preferred against Gunner R. Hudson, aged 25, and Gunner Florence, aged 25, both of the 9th Anti-Aircraft Battery, Lyemun Barracks, before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday. Hudson was additionally charged with failing to pay the legal taxi fare to complainant.

Both defendants denied the assault, and Hudson said he had paid 70 cents to the taxi driver.

Complainant told the Court that he was engaged at 10.55 p.m. from his stand at Blake Pier, and picked up defendants and four other men at the St. Francis Hotel. On instructions, he drove them to the Dreamland Dance Hall, and when defendants and their friends alighted from the taxi, witness asked for 70 cents as his fare.

Hudson alleged this was too much, and said he would only pay 60 cents, but witness insisted on being paid 70 cents. Hudson refused to pay the money, struck witness a blow on the chest, and kicked him on the right thigh. Witness added that Florence caught him with both hands by the neck. Witness then went to No. 2 Police Station where he reported the matter.

Cross-examined by Inspector A. V. Baker, who prosecuted, witness said that Hudson made him give him 40 cents before handing over a $1 banknote for the fare. Witness could not be sure if there were six or seven passengers in his taxi. He added that Hudson seized his uniform cap and threw it into the harbour.

The hearing was adjourned until 3.15 p.m. to-day.

CLAIM AGAINST LANDLORD

The hearing of the case in which Mr. H. A. Castro, of Messrs. Loxley and Company, brought a claim for $459 for damages to property against his former landlord, Mr. Wong Ping-suen, proprietor of the P. and O. Steam Navigation Company, was continued before the P. and O. Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, at the Summary Court yesterday.

The plaintiff was represented by Mr. M. A. da Silva, while the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo appeared for the defendant who brought a counter-claim against the plaintiff for $285, being three months' rent, including one month's rent in lieu of notice.

It will be recalled that the plaintiff stated in his claim which was made up of damage to clothing, blankets, children's beds, school books, one baby grand piano and furniture, breakage of crockery, electrical fittings, removal expenses and surveyor's fees, that he rented No. 14 Essex Crescent, Kowloon Tong, upon the terms that defendant should keep the roof and outer walls of the premises in a proper tenable state of repair. He alleged that defendant had not kept the roofs in a proper state of repair, in spite of repeated requests on his part.

AUGUST TYPHOON

Arisings out of the typhoon on the morning of August 17, last year, a considerable portion of the roof of the premises in question was blown away, as a result of which the ceiling of two eastern rooms on the upper floor collapsed, causing considerable damage to plaintiff's property.

After further evidence was given the hearing of the case was adjourned till August 5, at 10 a.m.

BICYCLE THIEF

A sentence of two months' hard labour was imposed on Liu See, aged 29, unemployed, for the theft of a bicycle when he appeared before Mr. E. Hunsworth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

Inspector Hynes told the Court that the vehicle belonged to a bicycle shop and was hired out by a foki on July 1. The customer failed to return the cycle at the appointed time. A few days later, Lau Kwai-wah, the shop foki, recognised the bicycle which was then being ridden by a stranger, who, when questioned, replied that he had bought the bicycle for $2. Acting on information received, defendant was arrested. He pleaded that he had taken the vehicle from outside a house.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

The following passengers will be arriving Hong Kong by the S.S. President Coolidge on July 16, from the Pacific Coast—

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bull, Mr. H. C. Durrschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Marshall and three children, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mathewson, Dr. L. Rajahman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shaner, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. L. Tenbroeck, Mrs. L. Wasem, Jr., Ellen Arnquist, Miss L. Baer, Mr. Lee Chung, Miss Mary Gloyd, Mr. and Mrs. John Hnatyshyn and daughter, Mr. E. Laidlaw, Miss Rosemarie Lann, Mr. W. J. Wong.

SENT TO THE SESSIONS

Wong Hoi, unemployed, was sentenced to stand trial at the next Criminal Sessions by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon for the importation and possession of 1,392 counterfeit ten-cent pieces, resembling that of the new issue of Hong Kong coins.

Wan Sau-wing, Chinese Revenue Officer, who was stationed at the Kowloon-Canton Railway Station on June 16, awaiting the arrival of the evening express, said that he saw defendant coming out of the train which arrived at about 7.35 p.m. He approached defendant and said that he wanted to search him. It appeared to witness that defendant attempted to avoid going near the officer and tried to run towards another direction. Eventually he was stopped and submitted to the search, as a result of which a specially-made waist coat was found on his person and the twenty-four pockets were filled with rolls of counterfeit ten-cent pieces. Defendant was then taken to the Water Police Station where he was charged with the offences.

Sergt. J. G. Whitcroft, attached to the Treasury, said he examined the coins carefully and found that the colour and the edges were different from those of the genuine ones.

Sub-inspector Kinnear, who prosecuted, testified that he searched defendant at the Station and some of the coins were found inside his socks.

Wong Hoi reserved his defence.

A FRAUD FOUND OUT

Tam Kwok-kwong, foki of the Hing Cheung shop at No. 33, Nan Chang Street, appeared before Mr. E. Hunsworth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a summons for having altered the figures on a receipt, thereby intending to defraud the Stamp Office.

It was alleged that defendant on March 29 received a sum of $201.84 from the Fook Cheung Co., and while making out a receipt the sum of $12.28 was marked down. He was fined $40.

A similar fine was imposed on Un Lik, foki of the Fan Chan shop at No. 4, Graham Street for a similar offence.

Detective Sergt. Whitcroft attached to the Treasury requested his Worship to take a serious view of the two cases.

Summer Salads Add Sparkle To Summer Meals

A salad, crisp, cool and inviting is prime favourite for many weather menus. Often they may serve as the main dish for luncheon or supper—and many times the major portion of the preparation may be done in advance—a real help when every minute possible should be spent out-of-doors.

DEEP SEA SALAD

Remove skin and bones from two cups of canned salmon and break into pieces. Mix lightly with 1 cup fresh cooked peas and 1 cup sliced celery, chilled and moistened with French dressing. Pile on crisp lettuce and garnish with slices of tomato. Serve with mayonnaise mixed with 2 tablespoons chili sauce, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, 1 teaspoon paprika.

DAISY SALAD

Rinse individual molds in cold water and arrange in them 4 or 5 slices of canned peaches. Let the segments radiate out from the centers of the little molds. In the meantime soften 2 teaspoons granulated gelatine in 1 tablespoon cold water, add 1 cup hot water and stir until dissolved. Add 1 cup peach juice, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1 cup cottage cheese, salt to taste and a dash of cayenne. Pour into molds and chill until firm. Unmold on nests of shredded lettuce and serve with mayonnaise thinned with whipped cream.

TOMATO SALAD

1 pkg. lemon gelatine
1 pint warm water
1 tsp. salt
4 tsp. vinegar
1 cup sliced cucumber
1 cup diced cucumber
1 small tomato

Dissolve gelatine in warm water. Add salt and vinegar. Chill until slightly thickened. Into half of the thickened gelatine fold cucumber and celery, turn into mold and chill. Cut tomato in wedges. Fill mold with remaining thickened gelatine and arrange tomato wedges in it. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with thin cucumber slices and parsley. Serve with crisp lettuce and mayonnaise.

FRUIT SLICES

Make the fruit mixture as follows. Chop an apple finely, and two ounces of chopped raisins and sultanas and an ounce of currants, add the grated rind of a lemon, half a teaspoonful of cinnamon, two tablespoonfuls of ground almonds, two ounces of brown sugar, and an ounce of melted butter. Mix well. Sift half a pound of self-raising flour into a bowl with a good pinch of salt, rub in four ounces of butter (or lard or margarine), and make into a stiff past with the yolk of an egg and a little milk. A couple of tablespoonfuls of sugar can be added to the pastry before mixing, if liked. Divide into two portions and roll out rather thinly. Spread with the mixture, keeping it away from the edges. Moisten the edges, put on the other half of pastry, and press together. Mark the top with a knife, put on a greased baking tin, and bake in a hot oven for about half an hour. A few minutes before it is ready to come out of the oven brush over the top with the white of the egg. When baked, sift the

Buttered Eggs

This is a splendid breakfast dish, and the quantities given make sufficient to serve 4 people. Put 4 fresh eggs into a pan of water and boil till hard, then place in a basin of cold water for a few minutes. Meanwhile make a white sauce by melting 1 tablespoon butter in a pan, adding 1½ tablespoon flour into the melted butter, and stirring until smooth; then add 1 cup milk and stir over a low fire until the sauce is thick and smooth. Add salt and pepper to taste. Remove the yolks from the whites of the eggs. Chop the whites finely and add to the sauce. Butter four slices of toast and cover with the egg sauce. Force 2 of the egg yolks through a sieve and sprinkle over the top. Garnish with small triangles of toast, cut remaining egg yolks into slices and garnish, finish with tiny sprigs of parsley.

FRUIT SALAD TIPS

One of the most inviting foods for warm weather service is fruit salad. Here are some interesting versions of this healthful and appetizing type of salad.

ORANGE FLOWER SALAD

Orange sections
Lettuce
Maraschino cherries
Mayonnaise
Arrange orange sections on a bed of lettuce to simulate the petals of a flower. Garnish with tiny strips of maraschino cherry and mayonnaise forced through a pastry tube.

PEACH CUP SALAD

12 medium halves, canned peaches
1 cup celery
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup seeded raisins
2 to 3 tablespoons apple butter
Arrange twin nests of lettuce on individual salad plates. In each nest place a half of a peach. Combine celery, nuts, raisins and apple butter. Fill centers of peach with mounds of this mixture. Place spoonful of mayonnaise between halves of peach.

PEAR MACARON SALAD

Halves of canned pears
1 package cream cheese
Macaroon crumbs
Maraschino cherries
Mash cheese and spread a thin layer on half a pear. Cover with another half of pear and dip the whole pear thus formed in ground macaroon crumbs. Serve the fruit in a deep cup of lettuce garnishing top with a maraschino cherry cut in half. Place a spoonful of mayonnaise at one side.

Egg Jelly

This is a splendid dish for the convalescent or invalid. Rub 3oz. loaf sugar on the rind of a lemon, then squeeze the juice out of the lemon into a basin. Add water to the juice to make 1 liquid. Put this liquid into a pan with 1oz. gelatine and the sugar. Add 2 well-beaten eggs and whisk the mixture until it is nearly boiling and the gelatine dissolved.

Be sure not to allow the mixture to boil.
Strain through a cloth and set in a wet mould.

BANANA SALAD

6 bananas
1 cup macaroon crumbs
1 head romaine
1 cup currant jelly
1 vinegar
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 teaspoon salt
Peel bananas and roll macaroon crumbs. Arrange bananas on romaine on individual salad plates. Mash jelly, add vinegar, oil, salt and serve on the salad.

BUNCH OF GRAPE SALAD

6 halves canned pears
1 package cream cheese
1 pound green or red grapes
1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup chopped nut meats
Drain pears thoroughly by placing on a tea towel. Frost the rounded side with thin layer of cream cheese. Cover with halves of green or red grapes from which seeds have been removed. Insert, to represent stem a parsley stem from which leaves have been removed. Arrange in individual beds of lettuce a spoonful of mayonnaise combined with the nuts. Cover with with decorated pear.

CANTALOUPE SALAD

Cut three cantaloupes in half and remove seeds. Scoop out in balls. Mix with French dressing. Arrange on nests of lettuce and sprinkle with 3 tablespoons finely chopped candied or maraschino cherries.

Eggs au Gratin

Hard boil 6 eggs, remove shells, and cut into halves. Lay in bottom of a buttered pliedish. Make 2 cups white sauce and add 1 cup grated cheese, stir well and pour over the eggs. Cover with 1 cup stale breadcrumbs, mixed with 1 tablespoon melted butter and bake slowly in a moderate oven until brown, being careful not to boil. Serve very hot with thin slices of brown bread and butter.

If served in ramekin dishes this is a splendid tea or supper dish.

Sandwich Hint

To make sure that out-of-door appetites are not disappointed, wrap the sandwiches first in greaseproof paper, then in a damp cloth, to keep them fresh.

CHAUTEMPS CONFERS

Fria, July 6.
The first of a series of regular conferences, which the Premier, Mr. Camille Chautemps, will hold, in order to keep in touch with current affairs, in co-operation with ministerial colleagues, was held at the Premier's official residence, Hotel Matignon, this morning.
It is believed that above all, foreign political affairs, and matters of National defence were discussed. The conference was attended by Deputy Premier, M. Leon Blum, Minister of State, Sarraut, Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos, War Minister Daladier, Marine Minister, Campinchi and Air Minister, Pierre Cot.

NON-INTERVENTION COMMITTEE

London, July 6.
Replying to an interpellation in the House of Commons to-day, the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, declared that "as far as he was aware the Non-Intervention Committee was convoked for Friday."
The attitude of the British Government was still the same as had been outlined by the British delegation in the last session.

SCOTS NOTABLES RALLY TO GARDEN FETE

Historic Mansion Scene Of Unionist Gathering

Thousands of people flocked to the political fete in the grounds of Callendar House, Falkirk, recently. The Secretary of State for Scotland (Mr. Walter Elliot), who gave the address in the afternoon, and Mrs. Elliot were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forbes of Callendar, and a distinguished company had been invited by the Laird of Callendar and his wife to meet Mr. and Mrs. Elliot at a luncheon party.

It was an interesting occasion from many viewpoints, for Mr. and Mrs. Forbes have not been in residence at Callendar House for four years, and those who had never visited this historic place had an opportunity of seeing the parts of the house which have given significance to Scottish history.

ROMANTIC HOUSE

Mrs. Elliot had the use of the apartments where Mary Queen of Scots and her four Maries stayed for some time. Lady Stirling of Ghorat was given the Cromwell room—but the whole of this vast mansion is permeated with a sense of the tragic romance of the past. From the windows where Prince Charles Edward slept, where General Hawley breakfasted before the Countess of Kilmorack before the General's defeat at Falkirk, and where Queen Victoria looked out to a vista of trees and lovely lawns on her first visit to Scotland, the house-party gazed upon a different scene.

Marquees, tea tents, slide-shows presented a mushroom growth. For half an hour before Mr. Elliot made his speech Mr. and Mrs. Forbes and their guests watched a fashionable mannequin parade of day, evening, and beach fashions.

Among those invited to meet the Secretary of State were Lord and Lady Sinclair, Lord Nigel Douglas-Hamilton, Lady Dalrymple of Binn, Lady Stirling of Ghorat and Miss Jean Stirling, Harriet Lady Findlay, Colonel Gordon Loch and Mrs. Gordon Loch, Captain and Mrs. Lindsay of Kennet, Captain and the Hon. Mrs. Davidson, Admiral Hotham, C.B., and Mrs. Barber-Fleming. The Solicitor-General for Scotland (Mr. J. S. C. Reid, K.C.) and his wife were also present. Mr. Reid, who was M.P. for Stirling and Falkirk burghs from 1931-35, receiving congratulations on his brilliant victory from former followers when visiting the various stalls and slide-shows after the opening.

WEATHER BAR TO FINKY

It was not a garden party-frock day, and though Mrs. Elliot had serious thoughts about changing from a navy blue costume into a frock she considered against it when something in the nature of an East Coast hair came swirling gently over the grounds.

The weather, however, did not affect the attendance, and in the later afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Forbes, who appeared to be known to practically everybody present, spent hours at the fete greeting their tenants and friends and helping to swell the coffers of the Stirling, Falkirk, and Grange-mouth Unionist Associations. Mrs. Forbes was also sensibly groomed for the day, her black jacket and skirt being worn with a large black and white feather wrap. The Hon. Mrs. Davidson, Viscountess Younger of Leckie's recently married daughter, wore a two-toned blue ensemble, the dark-coloured redingote opening over a deep hyacinth shade of frock. Lady Dalrymple, Lady arrived for lunch with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Loch, the latter wearing an attractively vivid shade of blue knitted frock and matching hat.

Blue silk cloche made the graceful frock and coat worn by Lady Stirling, her daughter's brown Night-weight tweed frock being ideal for the type of day. Harriet Lady Findlay was in navy blue, and Mrs. Reid's colourful mustard printed overblouse and black skirt was worn later with a fur coat.

The TIME TEST and 'ASPRO'

THE old idea that a dozen medicines were needed for a dozen complaints—that laying up for indefinite periods was necessary—that it was also necessary to take dangerous drugs and narcotics—was an illusion. "ASPRO" has dispelled it. For it is the medicine that takes the place of a dozen medicines, because, after ingestion in the system, it is an internal antiseptic—an anti-pyretic or fever reducer—an anti-periodic—a powerful germicide, and a solvent of Uric Acid, and, therefore, banishes the causes of numerous complaints. That's why ASPRO banishes headaches in five minutes. It's the time test for quick action, and it stands the test of time. "ASPRO" soothes the irritable—brings sweet sleep to the sleepless—relieves rheumatism in one night—smashes colds and influenza at inception. Furthermore, "ASPRO" does not harm the heart or the stomach. It can be taken by all, from child to parent, anywhere, any time. The price is within the reach of all.

LARGER FLYING BOATS FOR THE ATLANTIC

Building Plans For Two Years Ahead

Flying boats twice the weight of the present 40,500lb. Empire type are being designed by Short Brothers, of Rochester, for the Atlantic traffic.

Construction will begin this year, and the trial flights will take place in 1939.

These 36-ton boats will be able to fly the 3600 miles between the Empire air base at Portsmouth and New York in about 24 to 26 hours, including fuelling halts in Ireland, Newfoundland and Canada.

The cruising speed will be about 180 m.p.h. About 600 h.p. will be required to drive them.

Some idea of the factors in the construction may be gained from the figures of the Empire boats, which weigh 40,500lb. fully laden and 27,340 lb. empty.

still be able to carry 1000lb. of experimental air mail.

Passenger boats for the Atlantic must, therefore, be much bigger. The Empire boats each have four Bristol Pegasus engines yielding 3680 h.p. between them at the take-off. By 1939, engines each yielding 1,500 h.p. at the take-off, will be available.

These will also be radial air-cooled types. The wing thickness, which is 3ft. in the Empire boats, will be increased in the new boats to enable the radial engine to be embedded in the leading edge of the wing, thus giving neater streamlining. This will help to give the higher cruising speed.

TWENTY PASSENGERS

The percentage of useful load to structure weight in the Empire boats is about 31 per cent, and if the same ratio is preserved in the bigger boats, some 80,000lb. will be available for pilots and crew, fuel and oil, passengers and baggage, mails and freight.

After allowing 25,000 lb. of this for the fuel and oil, a payload of about two tons can be carried. This is not very big even in the 80,000lb. boat, because the fuel load must be so heavy.

But up to 20 passengers with a reasonable baggage allowance could be carried and a small load of air mail.

OXFORD EIGHTS CLIMAX

Oriel Deposed After Four Years

After four years, Oriel have been deposed from the Head of the River and New College have taken their place. It was a thrilling race. New College repeated their tactics and, going off like a shot from a gun, were soon on Oriel's tail. In the Gut they were only about half a length behind, and though Oriel, striking 36, made desperate attempts to get away, New College were irresistible in their challenge, and inch by inch crept up.

At the New Cut, only two feet separated the boats, and then came a "ten" by New College which settled the race. In a few more strokes New College had overlapped and appropriately enough registered their bump amid great excitement opposite their own barge.

At least one member of New College crew, Mr. G. G. Ashby, the Old Blue, has chased Oriel nineteen times and this, the twentieth time, has seen him successful. It was hard luck for Oriel that a motor accident robbed them of Hodgson as stroke, but there is no getting away from the fact that New College have raced extraordinarily well—far better than their practice outings promised. They thoroughly deserved to go Head.

Trinity, who are one of the most attractive crews in the First Division, soon caught Christ Church, while Exeter accounted for University opponents the O.N. Club.

DEFENCES

AUSTRALIA'S NEEDS

Major-General Sir Charles Rosenthal said, in a recent broadcast address, that of all the dominions, because of its unique position in the British Empire, Australia probably stood to gain or lose most by the decisions of the Imperial Conference on the question of defence. Australia, he urged, must be prepared immediately to shoulder a much greater financial responsibility for defence than it had done in the past, primarily for its own protection, and also for the security of the Empire as a whole. He emphasised the necessity for seeing that all arms of Australia's defence were adequate, and that its defence forces were capable of co-operating with the defence forces of other parts of the Empire.

It might be expected, Sir Charles Rosenthal added, after naval policy had been decided, that Australia would increase its strength in ships and personnel in the immediate future. So far as the army was concerned, it would doubtless be decided that, as far as possible, Australia would manufacture the equipment it needed, including all types of field guns, tanks, small arms, and ammunition. The co-operation of manufacturing concerns was essential in order that dual-purpose plants could be immediately switched from the manufacture of peace condition requirements to those essential to war. Many landing grounds must be provided along the Australian coast line and also inland for Australia's Air Force. The possibilities of that arm of the service were immeasurable, with the planes of the future capable of moving troops and guns rapidly to threatened points.

With the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow the world's focal centre had moved to the Pacific, said Sir Charles Rosenthal, and Australia became, therefore, perhaps the most important of the British dominions. Mr. Lyons's suggestion at the Imperial Conference regarding a Pacific pact had much to commend it, but there were many and seemingly insuperable difficulties in the way of such a pact.

THE EMPTY STALL

A new banner hung over the Duke of Windsor's empty stall in St. George's Chapel at the Garter service. It showed a knight who could read it that he had been King in no longer head of the family. In Scotland the Duke is a Knight of the Thistle, but he was never formally installed in the Order as Prince of Wales or as King, and so the changes that have been made in the disposition of the stalls in the Thistle Chapel in St. Giles, Edinburgh, will not be apparent to the casual observer.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Garvel is an Idaho town but you will never find it in Idaho. Instead, the town in its entirety was built on the spacious acres of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios at Culver City, California.

Garvel is the setting of "A Family Affair," a motion picture adapted from Aurania Rouveyrol's play, "Siddling." It will be shown to-day at the King's Theatre. Rather than transport several hundred players to a typical town in Idaho, Director George Seitz decided to transfer the town to Culver City. Thus, the time and costs of travel would be spared to Lionel Barrymore and to Eric Linden, Cecilia Parker, Mickey Rooney and the others in the cast.

LET THEM LIVE

A significant phase of modern life is portrayed with dramatic intensity in Universal's "Let Them Live," which has its run at the Alhambra Theatre to-day. The story sets forth the valiant battle of a young doctor to compel political bosses to improve health conditions in a city. The romantic element of the screen drama develops when two lovely girls are attracted to the doctor.

The leading role is played brilliantly by John Howard, who scored earlier in "Lost Horizon." Nan Grey, remembered for the work in "Three Smart Girls," gives an appealing performance opposite Howard. The other girl who vies with Nan for the doctor's affection is Judith Barrett, seen as the niece of the political chief. The latter role is portrayed by Edward Ellis. A newcomer to the movies, Robert Wilcox, is prominently cast as Howard's colleague.

Howard saves the life of a boy, Bennis Bartlett, whose plight spurs the doctor to clean up the city, in order to prevent epidemics. Ellis cares for the boy as his own and becomes affectionately attached to him.

LET'S MAKE A MILLION

The trouble one man's bonus got him into is hilariously portrayed in "Let's Make A Million," a gay comedy with Edward Everett Horton to be screened at the Oriental Theatre on Friday and Saturday. Horton, we are informed, wanted to use the money to marry his secretary, played by charming Charlotte Wynters. But his two maiden aunts, played by Margaret Seddon and Margaret McWade, have notions of their own as to how the money is to be spent, and when the two opinions clash, the fun begins.

THE KING'S VACATION

George Arliss, who returns to the screen at the Majestic Theatre to-day in his latest picture for Warner Bros., "The King's Vacation," appears in a role said to be perfectly fitted to his unusual talents, and a story believed to be the finest of all his screen productions.

The screen play is a rare combination of humor, dramatic sequences and spectacular scenes, tinged with a delightful romance. It was written especially for Arliss by Ernest Pascal, author of "The Marriage Bed," who also adapted it to the screen in collaboration with Maude T. Howell.

LA MERI'S FAREWELL

To-day's Programme At The King's

Encouraged by the extraordinary reception that she received last Monday at her first concert, La Meri has consented to offer a second and completely new programme to-day at 5.10 in the King's Theatre.

It would be superfluous to insist upon the extraordinary art of this dancer; everybody in Hong Kong knows by having seen her or by the reports obtained that she is the greatest and most complete dancer of the day.

The programme which will be presented this afternoon appears, if possible, even more interesting than the one of the first night; La Meri will dance four new Spanish dances in which she is incomparable. These will be followed by three interpretative dances, the world famous, "White Peacock," Three Preludes of Scriabine and a satyr dance with different masks on the popular "Humoresque" by Dvorak.

After a short interval, four oriental dances will follow and among these it will be extremely interesting to witness the "Peacock" in an Eastern interpretation by Ram Gopal, the brilliant Hindu dancer discovered by La Meri, and finally three Latin American dances, the Argentinian "Gato," the Cuban "Caraball" and the Mexican "Jarabe Tapatio" will close the performance.

The "Peacock," one of the sacred birds of the east and most particularly of India, has been stylized for centuries in a dance by the Hindus and it is at the ancient and famous school of Malabar in South India, that Ram Gopal acquired the tradition of the same. It will extremely interesting to see the same idea and the same inspiration translated choreographically by a great western artist and a brilliant young dancer of the Kato Kali school. In the "Jarabe Tapatio" of Mexico, La Meri will be assisted by Ram Gopal who will also dance "Indra" or the God of the elements represented riding Travata, his white elephant, on the clouds.

KING AND QUEEN IN SCOTLAND

London, July 7. The King and Queen who are in residence at Holyrood House, Edinburgh, drove to-day through the streets of Leith. They were most enthusiastically received, particularly by the fisher-wives who were wearing their traditional dress with brightly coloured shawls and sat on fish boxes along the road. Also on the quayside were 400 men of the Newhaven Free Fishermen's Society, the oldest organized fishing society in the world. It had been established for over 800 years.—

APPOINTMENTS

London, July 7. The King has approved the following appointments in the Diplomatic Service:—
Sir W. Selby, His Majesty's Minister at Vienna to be Ambassador at Lisbon in succession to Sir Charles Wingfield who is retiring towards the end of the year.
Mr. Charles Parlaire, British Minister at Stockholm to be Minister at Vienna; Sir Edmund Monson, British Minister at Riga to succeed Mr. Parlaire at Stockholm.—

ARREST OF JEWISH COMMUNISTS

Jerusalem, July 8. Many Jewish communists, mostly from Poland, have been arrested or expelled from this city, since the authorities do not intend to take any chances that the already serious situation be still further aggravated by irresponsible agitation of communists.
Since it is feared that the publication of the Palestine Partition Plan on Thursday may lead to serious disorders, the police will remain in readiness from Wednesday, and troops of the British garrison will likewise not be allowed to leave their barracks from that date.
The Arab and Jewish opposition against the partition of Palestine is increasing from day to day, and protest meetings by Arabs as well as Jews are being held throughout the city and country.
The Grand Mufti has appealed for the maintenance and strengthening of a solid Arab bloc, and his appeal is being broadcast in the streets.—

He no longer has a special stall in the Chapel. The Prince of Wales's stall, which he never occupied, will, in future, be the Queen's stall. It is on the immediate right hand of the King's and Her Majesty will be invited to take her place in it after her installation at the service held on July 7. All Knights of the Thistle have been summoned to a rehearsal at the Chapel the day before the service. There are 18 stalls and 17 Knights, but there will be absentees, including the Viceroy of India, the Marquis of Linlithgow, Duke of Kent to Attend.
The Duke of Kent, it is learned, has indicated his intention of being present at the Knights of the Thistle service during a brief stay with their majesties at Holyrood house. His Royal Highness will occupy the only other royal stall besides those of the King and Queen in the Thistle Chapel, that of the Duke of Connaught. Other

QUALITY STREET

Phoebe Throssel, quaint character of Sir James M. Barrie's "Quality Street" first brought to life by Maude Adams, has been recreated by Katharine Hepburn in her own inimitable manner for the screen version of the play which opens at the Queen's Theatre to-day. As co-star Franchot Tone plays the role of Dr. Valentine Brown. Both headliners triumph in their roles.
A ten-year romance between the two is interrupted by the flashing young doctor's enlistment to fight against Napoleon. The situations which arise after Valentine's return form the base of the story. They are in turn, quaint, humorous, appealing and strikingly dramatic.

ITALY'S FUNDS RUN OUT

Clearing Houses Near Exhaustion

London, July 6. Captain H. F. Crookshank, Secretary for Mines, in reply to a Parliamentary question asking if he was aware that coal-owners in Britain had been warned that resources of Italian clearing houses were nearing exhaustion, and if he could indicate what steps he was taking to deal with the matter, said that in the existing circumstances he had warned the coal trade that the utmost caution should be exercised in accepting any further commitment in the Italian market.

Very large Italian purchases of coal had already been made. So far as it was possible to estimate the future position of the clearing, it was probable that the contracts already made, if fully executed, would leave no margin of payment for the rest of the present year.

The position in regard to 1938 was also receiving consideration. The position was about to be discussed informally with the Italian government.

DEADLOCK STILL EXISTS

India's Congressmen Meet

Simla, July 6. The Congress Party working committee which, with the provincial parliamentary leaders of the group, was in session twelve hours to-day to decide whether to take office in six provinces where the party hold clear majorities. But the meeting adjourned until tomorrow without reaching any decision.

The Congress Party refused to take office because of certain objections to Governor's powers, granted by the new Constitution. They demanded that the Governors pledge themselves not to use these powers, over the heads of the legislators, and when the Governors declined, the Congress group refused office.

This deadlock still exists, with minority parties in the seat of Government.

Reuter.

COMMITTEE ADJOURNS

Although the Congress Working Committee, after a twelve hours' session, adjourned until to-day without reaching a decision whether to take office in the six provinces where they hold clear majorities, it is learned that the leaders of the Congress Party in five provinces—namely, Madras, the United Provinces, the Central Provinces, Bombay and Orissa—expressed themselves in favour of acceptance of office.

The Committee's decision is expected to be known in the evening.

BIG LONDON FIRE

London, July 6. One of the biggest fires in East London occurred in the East Ham area to-day. The fire started in the yards of a timber merchant and tar distiller and spread rapidly.

Fire-fighters took two and a half hours to get the flames, which covered a wide area under control. The yard is expected to be a total loss, but there will be no casualties.

BRITISH SHIPPING WARNED

London, July 7. The President of the Board of Trade was asked how many British ships had entered Santander Harbour during the past fortnight, whether they experienced any difficulty, and whether all carried observers on board. Mr. Oliver Stanley replied that according to his information during the fortnight ended on June 30, eleven British ships entered Santander all of which carried observing officers.

The Board had no information that any of the vessels experienced difficulty. Since June 30, however, Spanish insurgent war vessels had been endeavouring to prevent entry of merchant ships into Santander and they captured a French vessel on July 4. Notification was sent to the British shipping industry regarding the risks which British merchant ships, bound for Santander may encounter in territorial waters.

FLYING THE ATLANTIC

Survey Flights Completed

London, July 6. The first survey flights for the joint Anglo-American Atlantic air service, were successfully completed to-day when the American flying-boat, Clipper III, landed at Foynes in the Irish Free State at 10.50 B.S.T. from Botwood, Newfoundland, and ten minutes later the British flyingboat Caledonia landed at Botwood from Foynes.

Many telegrams of congratulations have been received by the commanders of the two machines including a message to each from the Air Minister, Viscount Swinton. Weather conditions, although fair, were not particularly favourable for the Caledonia owing to the persistent low clouds and drizzle. She flew low to minimise the effect of the head winds while the Clipper III maintained a height of about 10,000 feet to take full advantage of a following wind.

Captain Wilcockson, Commander of the Caledonia, said he had petrol enough left for 800 or 900 miles when he landed. In his view the promising feature of the flight is the evidence it affords of two planes flying to schedule in opposite directions. Radio contacts with land stations and between planes were maintained throughout and when they passed in Mid-Atlantic, although far out of sight of each other, they exchanged greetings and weather reports. The success of the flights convinced the pilots that there should be no difficulty in operating regular trans-Atlantic services.

MORE HOPEFUL OUTLOOK

Rome, July 6. A more hopeful tone regarding the European situation is apparent here, where it is felt secret negotiations are proceeding towards the discovery of a solution to the Spanish problem satisfactory to both sides.

MINISTRY OF LABOUR VOTE

Debate In Commons

London, July 7.

During the debate on the vote for the Ministry of Labour in Commons to-night, Mr. Ernest Brown made some interesting comments on the present employment position and other matters. In regard to employment he said the three outstanding facts were, firstly last year there was an exceptionally sharp rise in the numbers available for employment, secondly the large increase in the numbers in work. These reached a record which has never been approached since the statistics have been kept.

Thirdly, the reasonable decrease in numbers unemployed. All principal industries shared in the improvement, including those like the coal mining and cotton industry which were contracting industries. While it had been for the Ministry a very satisfactory year, the situation provided no cause for complacency and they could not be satisfied with what had taken place. He proposed in September to send out the Parliamentary Secretary with the Permanent Secretary to visit the different divisions and to have conferences with managers of Employment Exchanges as to their future.

The particular difficulties which would be examined were those of the elderly man. Another problem was that of a large number of young men who had never had the opportunity of work at all. They hoped to get information sufficiently reliable to arrive at a cost of living index up to date, and the real representative of the ordinary working class life of the country. Referring to the conditions of labour, Mr. Brown said a committee had been appointed under the chairmanship of Lord Amulree. The committee had held half a dozen meetings and the House and nation as a whole would be put in possession of the information and recommendations.

Non-Intervention Committee To Hold Full Session

London, July 6.

The full session of the International Non-Intervention Committee meets on July 9, it was officially announced here to-day.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Anthony Eden informed the House of Commons that the meeting had been fixed for Friday.

In reply to the suggestion that the delay of the Non-Intervention Committee's decision was serious, the Foreign Minister said the Government had made its position clear. It had not only made its own proposals, but had declared its readiness to consider any other proposals that were just and fair. In the circumstances, Mr. Eden added, he thought a little time for reflection on the serious issues involved might even prove useful.

He pointed out that the gap in the control scheme at the moment was advantageous to the Spanish Government, not to the Insurgents, and said he saw no reason to suppose the Portuguese frontiers would be abused.

PROBLEM DISCUSSED

The Spanish problem was the subject of discussion this morning between Mr. Eden and the French Ambassador, following a week-end conference between M. Charles Corbin and his Government in Paris.

French circles in London consider the time is not yet ripe for devising a compromise formula between the conflicting proposals. These latter will come before the full Non-Intervention Committee Friday, when members of the committee, whose Government's share no responsibility in the Naval control scheme, will have an opportunity of expressing their views on them.

NO DRAMATIC MOVE

These French observers believe the Italians and Germans are still ready to consider whatever proposals emanate from the Non-Intervention Committee. At least they have no word from Germany and Italy to indicate otherwise.

No dramatic move, therefore, is expected Friday, but rather the opening of prolonged discussions on the basis of known views and those which will be ascertained in full committee.

DE VALERA FAILS

Dublin, July 6.

Mr. Eamon de Valera has failed to get a plurality in the Dail Eirann.

The final position of the parties in the general election shows the Fianna Fail, Mr. de Valera's party, with 59 seats, and all other parties, led by Mr. William Cosgrave's totalling 69. But as the Fianna Fail total includes the Speaker, Mr. de Valera will have a minority of one.

He will thus require an understanding with Labour if he is to govern.

Should Mr. de Valera reach an accord with Labour his position would be considerably strengthened for 12 Labourites have been returned as compared with eight at the last election. But such Labour support will entail drastic amendments of the Constitution Reform Bill, as at present drafted, and it is widely believed that whatever

STRANGE CASE OF AMNESIA

Paris, July 7.

An unusual case of amnesia occurred at St. Germain, when a patient of the hospital, who had entered 5 years ago, without being able to recall either name or any other particular of his life, suddenly remembered everything of his past life up to the moment when he entered the hospital.

This sudden recovery was brought about by a visitor who turned out to be his sister. The man was a professor of mathematics at Metz by name of Jean Fruefer.

His sudden recovery was accompanied by a nervous breakdown, when the professor cried like a child.

KOWLOON COLLAPSE

PILLAR GIVES WAY AFTER HEAVY RAIN

In the course of the heavy down-fall of rain yesterday evening, a pillar holding the ceiling of the verandah of Nos. 218 to 220 Reclamation Street, top floor, gave way, as a result of which the roofs collapsed.

It is learned that sometime yesterday afternoon some bricks fell off from the roofs of the houses in question, while the pillar supporting the beams on the roofs showed signs of weakening. The matter was reported to the police and immediately a contractor was sent for with workmen in an attempt to prevent the pillar from collapsing, but despite that the heavy shower proved too much for the dilapidated pillar which eventually gave way, bringing down the ceiling with it.

Fortunately the two top floors concerned were vacant flats and nobody was injured.

There were people living on the ground floor of No. 218 and the first and ground floors of No. 220, but they were evacuated immediately after the collapse.

It is learned that the premises in question are owned by the Kwong Wah Hospital and that they are 40 years old.

It is understood that the reconstruction of the pillar and the ceiling will commence to-day.

The condition of General Li Lieh Chun, former Governor of Kwangsi, who is lying ill in a Buddhist monastery at Tachang, near here, has improved and he is now out of danger.

Canada, and General Hertzog from South Africa. Now, thought the public when the conference met, the policy of migration which all the statesmen demand, will be launched into action.

But the Imperial Conference is over, the delegates are going home, and no steps for restoring migration have been announced.

Why is that? The reason is simple. The Dominions must be assured of a sufficient permanent increase in trade to enable them to absorb new settlers without difficulty. And they look to Britain, who wants to send the settlers, to give them the trade.

So the first practical step towards an emigration policy must be the presentation of a comprehensive plan by Britain for buying more Empire produce in place of the foreign produce which now floods the British market. That step has not been taken.

And meanwhile more voices are raised in favour of the desirability, the necessity, the urgency of restoring Empire migration. Two hundred, and forty-four more voices. That number of members of Parliament on the Government back benches have set their names to a resolution demanding "the resumption of the movement of population within the Empire."

The Dominion Governments want it, the British Government want it, the British Government's supporters in Parliament want it, and the ordinary, unofficial men and women of Britain and the

GOVERNMENT CLAIM CAPTURE OF TWO VILLAGES

Madrid, July 7.
Heavy fighting is reported from the Madrid front where Government troops are taking the offensive in the north and north-east sectors. Government troops claim to have captured the two villages of Villanueva and Decanada after a brilliant night attack. —Reuter's Bulletin Service.

BISCAYA TAKEN BY NATIONALISTS

Bilbao, July 7.

The entire Province of Biscaya is now in the hands of the Nationalists, with exception of a few small towns which are stubbornly defended by the Basques.

This morning a detachment of Nationalist troops reached the town of Garamza, north-east of Ramales. By an outflanking movement, the Nationalists completely isolated the 2,000 Basques in this sector. The retreat of the Basques to Castro Urdiales and the adjacent villages has likewise been cut off. Castro Urdiales itself is now within range of the Nationalist batteries.

Operations of the Nationalist troops were effectively supported by Nationalist planes, which bombed Red sections and coast regions with marked success. Since opening the Nationalist offensive on the Biscaya Front, the Nationalists have advanced to a depth of 50 kilometres on a front extending over 100 kilometres. Troops of General Solenaga have advanced roughly 50 kilometres beyond Bilbao and his vanguard is now only 65 kilometres from Santander.

NATIONALIST REPORT

Salamanca, July 6.

The Nationalist command reports from the Madrid Front that at Brunate the Republicans were forced to fall back at several points. Nationalist reserves hurried to the spot to reinforce the main troops, and succeeded in surrounding the republicans, but the issue is still undecided.

The republicans succeeded in making a breach into the Nationalist troops at Granada, near Alcala la Real, but with reinforcements arriving, the republicans were driven back.

Three Republican planes were shot down by Nationalist planes, and two by anti-aircraft guns. —Transocean News Service.

MRS. PUTNAM

New York, July 6.

The flickering hopes roused by numerous radio reports allegedly picked up from Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam, following her disappearance with three companions somewhere near Howland Island in the course of a Pacific flying adventure, are now fading entirely.

Investigation of the conflicting radio reports have come to nothing.

The most heart-breaking disappointment of all came yesterday. A Galveston, Texas, amateur reported that the Coast Guard cutter Itasca had actually sighted Mrs. Putnam's plane. This report was found to be without any foundation.

COST OF SEARCH

The search for Mrs. Putnam has already cost the Government of the United States $450,000 and is now costing $250,000 a day with a battleship, aircraft, destroyers and coast guard cutters searching the Pacific at their best speed.

Merchant ships, British and Japanese naval vessels have also assisted, in some instance altering course to join the hunt, but for the most part using their radio to check beatings of any whisper from the lost machine. —Reuter.

PRESIDENT ANXIOUS

Washington, July 6.

President Roosevelt, at a press conference, expressed concern for the safety of Mrs. Amelia Putnam. He said the Navy and other Government agencies were doing everything possible, and the search which had been ordered covered as much territory as possible.

The President added that he was receiving frequent reports with regard to the progress of the search. —Reuter.

REPORT DENIED

London, July 7.

Reports from Red Spanish sources that a British ship had been torpedoed by a submarine in Spanish water were denied by authoritative London quarters. It is stated that the British warship Penelope left Barcelona yesterday to rescue the crew of an allegedly torpedoed ship. The Penelope however returned to Barcelona to-day and she was unable to discover any trace of such an incident. —Transocean News Service.

JEWISH LAWYER GAOLED

Zurich, July 6.

The district court has sentenced the Jewish lawyer, Rosenbaum, to four months and 8,000 francs fine and the Communist, Max Brunner, to one month's imprisonment and 100 francs fine for having rendered illegal assistance to the Spanish Civil War party.

Rosenbaum had financed large arms deliveries from Memei to Barcelona while Max Brunner had acted as courier and accompanied the transports from Memei to Barcelona. —Transocean News Service.

PLAN TO USE POISON GAS

Berlin, July 6.

The special correspondent of the "Berliner Boersenzeltung" reports that a detailed plan of the Red General Staff to use poison gas in the Spanish civil war fell into the hands of the Nationalist command, when "Zudacho," the Jesuit College in Bilbao, was captured.

According to that report, poison gas is being manufactured by several factories in Barcelona. The Red Spanish steamer "Andutz-Mendi" is, moreover, said to have brought acids for the manufacture of poison gases to Barcelona from Odessa. —Transocean News Service.

VAN ZEELAND IS SATISFIED

Brussels, July 7.

Following a Cabinet meeting, at which the Premier, M. Paul van Zeeland reported to his colleagues on the outcome of his mission to the United States, he received press representatives, and told them that the United States were fully in agreement with the economic mission he had undertaken on the proposal of England and France, and had already concluded several agreements, with other countries with the end in view of removing commercial barriers.

He was also assured of American support in the endeavour to ensure and secure the peace of the world. The general attitude in the United States was described as encouraging and the opinion was said to prevail, that as soon as certain conditions were fulfilled, a practical solution to the economic questions would be found.

M. Paul van Zeeland estimates that his investigations and negotiations would be terminated in about 6 weeks, and he would then publish the results. —Transocean News Service.

CHAMBER & SENATE STILL DISAGREE

Paris, July 7.

The Chamber and Senate have not yet settled the fundamental disagreements which led to the fall of the Blum Cabinet is evidenced by the action of the Senate in rejecting on Tuesday the Bill introducing uniform auxiliary contracts in agriculture by a vote of 204 against 72, although the Chamber passed the Bill, and the Minister of Agriculture demanded its immediate passage.

During the Senate debate on the Bill, several Senators were outspoken in their criticism of the Chamber's action. Senator Clavel for example saying that the fact that the Chamber accepted the Bill did not mean that the Senate was forced to follow its error. —Transocean News Service.

JAPAN REVIEW

Emperor Jimmu Anniversary

An Imperial Prince will be asked to assume the honorary presidency of the 2,600th Anniversary Celebration Society, while General Hayashi, the Premier, will fill the post of honorary vice-president. The five big enterprises to be carried out by the Society are:

- 1.—Extension and improvement of the precincts of the Kasai Shrine, dedicated to the spirit of the Emperor Jimmu, and of the approaches to the Unai Imperial Mausoleum.
- 2.—Investigation and preservation of historic spots associated with the Emperor Jimmu.
- 3.—Improvement of the roads leading to all Imperial Mausolea.
- 4.—Establishment of a National History Hall.
- 5.—Publication of a book dealing with the cultural history of Japan.

The total cost involved is estimated at ¥10,000,000, of which half will be subsidized by the State, the remaining half being put by public subscriptions. The National History Hall which will be a combination of a big library and a big museum illustrative of the history of Japan, will be established at the estimated cost of ¥3,000,000 while the book on Japanese culture is expected to involve a total compilation cost of ¥1,000,000. It will be a big volume of 1,200 pages, and editions in English, French, German and Esperanto will also be published.

All these works are to be completed by the 2,600th anniversary of the enthronement of the Emperor Jimmu three years hence.

Britain's China Interests

The "Mainichi" predicts that negotiations will be opened shortly with the British Government for the promotion of Anglo-Japanese co-operation. It understands that at the conference of the Foreign, War and the Navy Ministers held recently Mr. Sato emphasized the need of retaining British friendship in the execution of Japan's continental policy, saying that to this end the adjustment of Sino-Japanese relations and the promotion of Anglo-Japanese co-operation in China are imperative. It further understands that the Services Ministers expressed agreement with the Foreign Minister's views and promised to support his policy.

The Osaka Journal also reports that quite recently the British Government informally approached the Japanese Government with overtures for the opening of negotiations.

Educational Firms

Following the example of various foreign countries, Osaka city, is to build a big "Educational Movie Hall" at a cost of about ¥500,000, for the benefit of primary school pupils.

In this connection, the Osaka city authorities, in concert with various film companies, will first produce typically educational pictures covering various fields of study.

The hall, with accommodations for about 1,000 pupils, is likely to be built at Sanadayama, Higashi-ku where a big library will also be built in commemoration of the 2,600th anniversary of the foundation of the Empire.

SHANGHAI EN FETE

"Birthday" Of Municipality

Shanghai, July 7.

The city was beflagged for the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai to-day, and celebrations which will last a week, started last night when elaborate lantern processions were watched by at least 500,000 people. The marchers started at Kiangwan, some miles out of the city, and paraded through the International Settlement to Nantao.

Shops, office buildings, motor cars and lorries are all decorated to-day. Scores of archways have been erected in various parts of the city. At night the streets blaze with illuminations.

The official programme commenced at 9.45 a.m. to-day at the auditorium of the Civic Centre, where a commemorative meeting was held, one of the principal participants being General Wu Teh-chen, former Mayor, now Governor of Kwangtung.

After the meeting a big exhibition at the Civic Centre was opened.

OXFORD WIN

London, July 7.

The annual cricket match between Oxford and Cambridge, concluded at Lord's to-day, Oxford winning by seven wickets.

Scores:—

Cambridge:—257 and 173.

Oxford:—267 (J. N. Grover 121) and 160 for three wickets (M. R. Barton 74 not out). —Reuter.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDES

Lysol Poisoning

An unknown Chinese male who tried to commit suicide by taking lysol was removed to the Kowloon Hospital yesterday where he was detained, after he was found lying unconscious on Tam Kung Road near the Dogs' Home.

Pun Yee, aged 21, male, was admitted to the Queen Mary Hospital yesterday from Room 71 of the Lai Loi Boarding House, No. 97, Connaught Road Central suffering from lysol poisoning, believed to be self-administered.

Later celebrations include further lantern processions, stage shows and fireworks on a grand scale. —Reuter.

ATTITUDE OF GERMANY TO COLONIAL PROBLEM

"MUST BE RETURNED TO HER"

Berlin, July 7.

A comprehensive collection of all German and foreign official and non-official utterances on the question of Germany's Colonial demands was published in a special issue of the German magazine on League of Nations affairs, "Völkerbund."

The introductory article once more defines Germany's attitude to the Colonial problem and refutes the arguments brought forward from abroad against returning her former Colonies to Germany.

The article points out that the thesis of Germany's inability to administer Colonies is no longer maintained, even in Great Britain, and that the argument of the worthlessness of the Colonies is valid only in as much as the Colonies have little value to the present owners who are saturated with Colonial possessions. Under German administration, the article asserts, the production of the Colonies could easily be tripled. The fact that a large part of the former German Colonies is still unknown territory is not taken into consideration of this estimate of future productivity of the territories.

The article asserts that an examination of the situation allows only the following conclusion: "If an accentuation of the economic differences is to be avoided, there is but one way to this, changes must be made in the sovereignty of the territories. In question, or in Germany's case, Colonies must be returned to her." —Transocean News Service.

TO-MORROW'S MEETING OF NON-INTERVENTION COMMITTEE

ITALY, GERMANY WILL FAVOUR INITIATIVE BY BRITAIN ALONE

No Compromise Reached In Diplomatic Contacts

LABOUR PARTY MEETS SCHEME WITH SUSPICION

London, July 7.
All the morning papers discuss at great length the forthcoming Non-Intervention Committee meeting on Friday and the outlook for non-intervention policy in general.

The diplomatic correspondent of the "Times" states that although diplomatic contacts of formal and informal nature have been kept up all the time, no compromise has been reached yet. The four questions, all closely connected with each other discussed were:-

The future of sea control—of at least the function it had fulfilled;

The future of land control;

The withdrawal of foreign volunteers;

The recognition of belligerent rights.

The correspondent adds that it may be supposed that the views of the Governments in that respect may yet undergo slight changes. Regarding the future procedure, the correspondent states that Germany—and the same may be said of Italy—will favour a new initiative by Britain alone.

ATTITUDE OF VALENCIA, BERLIN AND ROME

The "Daily Telegraph" diplomatic correspondent states that according to news received from the Valencia Embassy, the rumour that Valencia would favour the recognition of belligerent rights is unfounded.

Diplomatic conversations in Berlin during the last few days had shown that Berlin sincerely wished to maintain non-intervention policy. It was however generally believed that it would take some time to achieve a generally recognised transformation of the control scheme, which was considered by Britain and other powers as essential to any non-intervention scheme. Berlin and Rome were apparently entirely unimpressed by the suggestion that Britain and France, with neutral observers on board the ships, would take over the entire control. Even the suggestion that Germany and Italy should supply the neutral observers did not elicit an answer.

THE LABOUR PARTY

That the Labour Party meets the new scheme with suspicion is stated by the "Daily Herald," which adds that if the Government should be willing to compromise, and recognise both Spanish Parties as belligerent powers, as demanded by Berlin and Rome, it would have to face a strong Labour opposition.

Transocean News Service.

NEW CONTROL PLAN

London, July 7.

It is stated that a new control plan is being worked out in British Government circles, according to the "Daily Herald," declaring that emphasis will not be laid on sea control, but a broader basis for the entire non-intervention will be sought.

Although it is stated that the plan is being kept strictly secret, the paper nevertheless states that also the intimation of General Franco that he is prepared to co-operate in the question of withdrawal of foreign volunteers will play an important role in the coming negotiations.

Transocean News Service.

FRANCE'S CONDITIONS

It is stated that M. Corbi, French Ambassador to London has already received instructions for Friday's meeting of the Non-Intervention Committee. Two conditions, it is said, have been established by France on the subject:

1. That the sea control in one form or the other be re-established, in order to guarantee its effectiveness;
2. That the control on the Spanish-Portuguese frontier be continued or re-established in a new form which is to be no less effective than the former system.

GENERAL

FRANCO AND BRITAIN

GERMAN PRESS CRITICISM

Berlin, July 7.

The question of a recognition of the Government of General Franco by Britain and its connection with commercial interests was subject to more than one caustic remark in the German press on Tuesday, the "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" stating what England refused to do for the cause of peace, she was evidently willing to do for the sake of north Spanish iron ores.

The paper goes on to say that the British refusal to recognise General Franco as a belligerent power was evidently not so fundamental, after all, since the British action of sending a new Consul to Bilbao goes even further than the Italo-German proposals.

The paper bases its statement on the assumption that in applying to General Franco for an exequatur for a Consul at Bilbao, England conducted international negotiations, which according to all precedents, includes a state's recognition of General Franco.

The Italo-German proposals merely provided for recognition of General Franco as a belligerent, not as an official leader of a state.

PALESTINE ROYAL COMMISSION'S REPORT

British Grant To Transjordan

London, July 7.

There can be no question of fusion or assimilation between Jewish and Arab cultures. The gulf between the two races is already wide and will continue to widen if the present mandate is maintained.

THESE ARE THE TWO OUTSTANDING CONCLUSIONS OF THE HISTORICAL ANALYSIS OF THE PALESTINE ROYAL COMMISSION WHICH RECOMMENDS THE TERMINATION OF THE PRESENT MANDATE. THE NEGOTIATION OF TREATIES WITH THE ARABS AND THE TRANSJORDAN GOVERNMENT ON THE ONE HAND, AND THE ZIONIST ORGANISATION ON THE OTHER, AIM AT THE THREEFOLD PARTITIONING OF THE COUNTRY, FIRSTLY THE ARAB SECTION WHICH WILL BE UNITED TO TRANSJORDAN, SECONDLY THE JEWISH SECTION AND THIRDLY AN ENCLAVE UNDER BRITISH MANDATE, EXTENDING FROM A POINT NORTH OF JERUSALEM TO A POINT SOUTH OF BETHLEHEM WITH A SEAWARD CORRIDOR EXTENDING FROM JERUSALEM TO JAFFA.

The Mandatory should also be entrusted with the administration of Nazareth and empowered to safeguard the sanctity of the waters and the shores of Lake Tiberias, and similarly the protection of religious endowments etc., in Arab and Jewish states, which are sacred to the Jews and Arabs respectively.

THE FRONTIER

The frontier of the Arab and Jewish states will be as follows:-

Starting from Rasannaquera it follows the existing northern and eastern frontier of Palestine to Lake Tiberias, crosses the Lake to the River Jordan whence it continues down the river to a point north of Belsan, then across the Belsan Plain, along the southern edge of the Valley Jerzel to near Megiddo, across the Carmel Ridge, then southwards down the eastern edge of the Maritime Plain curving west to avoid Talkarn, to the Jerusalem-Jaffa corridor, near Lydda. In the South Corridor it continues down the edge of the plain to a point ten miles south of Rehovot thence westward towards the sea.

Haifa, Tiberias, Safad and Acre should be kept for a period under Mandatory Administration and the Arab state will be given an outlet to the sea at Jaffa. The Jewish state should pay the Arab state a subsidy to be fixed later, while in view of the backwardness of the Transjordan, Parliament (British) should make a grant of £2,000,000 to the Arab State.

TRANSITIONAL MEASURES

The recommendations make provision for the sale and exchange of population, etc., consequent upon a repatriation and pending the conclusion of the treaties, and propose certain transitional measures especially for controlling the sale of land and immigration.

While not professing to give the Arabs and Jews all that they want, the Commission declares that the recommendations give the Arabs, inter alia, national independence with the possibility of co-operating, on an equal footing, with the neighbouring Arabs in the cause of Arab unity and progress and also to remove the holy places from any fear of coming under Jewish control, plus a Jewish subvention and two million pounds from the British treasury, while the Jews will secure a national home in the fullest sense, thus attaining the primary objective of Zionism and ceasing at last to live a "minority life."

The British Government Memorandum says that the Government proposes to take the necessary steps (in view of their obligations under the League Covenant and other international instruments) to obtain freedom and give effect to the scheme of partition to which they hope the communities concerned will give an effective measure of consent.

CO-OPERATION ENCOURAGED

The Memorandum continues that despite the many discouraging experiences, the Government had done their utmost to encourage co-operation between the Arabs and Jews on the assumption that in due course of time the two races will adjust their national aspirations and render it possible for a single commonwealth to be brought about, under a unitary government, but they were driven to the conclusion that there was an irreconcilable conflict of aspirations which cannot be satisfied under the present Mandate.

MOST HOPEFUL

They concur that the Commission's recommendations are the best and most hopeful solution to the deadlock which, in addition to the benefits to the two parties mentioned in the report, should replace fear and suspicion by a sense of confidence and security and both people can obtain an inestimable boon and peace.

Pending the establishment of the scheme, the Government has no intention of surrendering the responsibility for peace, good order, and good government.

QUEEN ELIZABETH ADMITTED TO ORDER OF THE THISTLE

ST. GILES CATHEDRAL CEREMONY

Edinburgh, July 7.

Queen Elizabeth was to-day admitted to membership of Knights of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle. A special status had to be passed by the King before Her Majesty could enter the Chapter of the Order. The ceremony of admittance was held in St. Giles Cathedral and was attended by 16 knights of the Order including H.R.H. the Duke of Kent.

After an announcement by His Majesty favouring acceptance of the Queen to the Order of Knighthood (K.T.) the Queen took the oath.

Their Majesties and the Duke of Kent, drove to the Cathedral from Holyrood House in open carriages and were given a rousing reception by large crowds that had assembled in the streets.

Five hundred guests attended the first evening Court held at Holyrood House last night. This was the first Court held in Scotland in 32 years.

The King wore the uniform of Colonel-in-Chief of the Scottish Guards.

H.K. FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting On July 12

The annual meeting of the Hong Kong Football Association will be held in the Association's offices, Gloucester Building, on July 12, at 5.30 p.m., when, amongst other items, some important business will be transacted.

The report has been circulated to members and this shows a profit of $2,337.76, as against a loss of $3,397.54 in 1935-36.

CASES OF MISCONDUCT

Under the sub-heading of "Emergency Sub-Committee" the report reads:—

"It is with regret that the Council reports a large increase in cases of Misconduct on the field as compared with Season 1935/36. The Emergency Sub-Committee met on 22 occasions and dealt with 41 cases of Misconduct, as compared with 12 only during the previous season. The Council cherishes the hope that forthcoming season will see a marked improvement in the conduct of players on the field. They appeal strongly to Club Officials and Players for their support in this matter."

CORINTHIANS' VISIT

The Council congratulates the All-China Teams on their performance in the Olympic Games in 1936. They also note with pleasure the laudatory terms in which they were acclaimed by football officials and others throughout their tour.

It is with satisfaction that the Council notes that the representative British Amateur XI, the Kingston Corinthians, have arranged to visit Hong Kong during the Chinese New Year Holidays of 1938 under the auspices of the Hong Kong Chinese Amateur Athletic Federation.

BRITISH OPEN GOLF

Leading Scores

Carnoustie, July 8.
All of the notable players qualified to-day for the British Open Golf Championship, proper, the first round of which will be played to-morrow.

That the Americans are once again the most formidable of opposition is shown by the fact they hold the five leading positions at the end of the qualifying rounds.

Horton-Smith, who broke a course record on Monday with a 69, repeated the performance to-day giving him a nett total of 138 which leads the field.

However, the prize honour of the day went to Joe Kirkwood, who set a new course record with a card of 67, three strokes better than the old record and two better than Boomer's and Horton Smith's rounds on Monday.

Good scores were sent in by the Scottish amateur player, Alastair McLeod who totalled 143 and the young Sonning assistant, Max Faulkner, who aggregated 143.

The leading qualifiers were Horton Smith (138), Gene Sarazen (141), Snead, Ed. Nelson and Walter Hagen (142) all of whom are Americans.

The qualifying score was 157, and the leading returns were as follows:

Horton Smith	69 and 69	138
Gene Sarazen	70 and 71	141
Snead	72 and 70	142

FUNERAL OF MRS. J. RUSSELL

Well-Known Colony Social Worker

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT GRAVESIDE

The funeral took place yesterday at the Protestant Cemetery of the late Mrs. J. Russell, whose death occurred on Tuesday at the French Hospital after a short illness.

Connected with many social activities of the Colony, the deceased lady had been resident here since 1914. She was actively connected with the Cheer O Club.

The deceased's husband, Mr. J. Russell is well-known in sporting circles. Besides being a member of the lawn bowls team of the Hong Kong Football Club, Mr. Russell was convener of the Club and an ex-President of the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association.

Mrs. Russell leaves her husband, a married daughter, Margaret (in England), another daughter, Ellen and two sons, Robert and John to mourn her loss.

Rev. K. MacKenzie Dow conducted the burial rites, and a large gathering of friends and many ladies were present at the graveside to pay their last respects.

Mr. Russell and deceased's children were the chief mourners.

Among those present were Messrs. A. Macfarlane, W. J. Buller, N. Bejonjee, A. Brooksbank, J. Eccleshall, J. Sloan, E. Duncan, W. Gill, J. Polson, R. Bell, A. Stewart, I. S. Hardoon, R. Wallace, S. Follock, G. Bird, N. Drummond, A. W. Grimmit, W. Adams, W. Cunningham, D. Peoples and many others.

HEALTH RETURNS

One case of dysentery was reported to the Health Authorities for the 24 hours ended on Tuesday.

"AN EPISCOPAL ANTI-HUMBUG"

Bishop Of Chelmsford

"The Bishop of Chelmsford is an episcopal anti-humbug specialist," says a London columnist.

"He has now turned this valuable and Christian quality against those newspapers and individuals who lecture their fellow-countrymen for what they are pleased to call the extravagant and fulsome language used of our Royal family."

In a diocesan letter Dr. Wilson writes:—

"I cannot for the life of me see why, if we respect and love our King and Queen, we should not tell them so in any way which offers itself."

And he goes on to declare: "I think these pompous and portentous writers will find that we are entirely unrepentant."

LECTURE ON THEOSOPHY

Contrary to the announcement made in Tuesday's paper, the Theosophical Society now make public that Mr. C. Jinarajadasa will speak in the Roof Room of the Gloucester Hotel instead of at their Lodge room.

The lecture takes place to-day at 8.10 p.m. Mr. C. Jinarajadasa is world famous as a theosophist and his subject is "Theosophy—A Science of Reconstruction for the World and the Individual." Mr. Jinarajadasa is not only an expert in his subject but an exceptionally fine orator as well. The lecture is free to the public and to those in Hong Kong who are interested in the deeper problems of life this opportunity is unique.

OPIUM CARRIER CAUGHT

Sentence of five weeks' imprisonment, with the option of a fine of $50, was imposed on Leung Cho, a 26-year-old unemployed by Mr. E. Hunsworth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for having in his possession a tael of prepared opium.

Inspector Hynes said that defendant was arrested while carrying the drug wrapped up in a piece of paper at the Shumshulpo Ferry Wharf last week.

ALIEN FINED

Blas De Roino, aged 33, an unemployed Filipino appeared before Mr. K. Keen yesterday on charges that he failed to report his departure from the Colony on November 1935 and being in the Colony this month without a valid passport. De Roino admitted to the charges and was fined $5 on each offence.

NEURATHENIA

Since the Leipzig incident occurred and Baron von Neurath cancelled his visit to London, this is the joke on the Berlin Bourne: "Why is the Bourne so nervous?" "Because it is suffering from Neurathenia."

ANOTHER REMAND

Yu Wing appeared before Mr. K. Keen, on remand, to answer the charge of manslaughter. One week formal remand was granted.

BANISHEE RETURNS

A sentence of three months' hard labour was passed when Chau Lam, a banishee, appeared before Mr. K. Keen yesterday.

Chau was banished on June 23, this year. He stated that he had come back to visit his mother.

POSSESSION OF DRUGS

Chung Kut, aged 36, an unemployed, appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday, when he was charged with possession of dangerous drugs. He was remanded for a week, bail being fixed at $400.

CHINA'S FOREMOST AVIATRIX

China's foremost woman aviator, Miss Lim Pang Harp, arrived on a visit to Singapore some time ago. Miss Lim was a well-known figure when she returned to China in 1931 after a course of aviation in Europe. She had offered her services to the Chinese Government at the time of the Sino Japanese conflict but when she reached Shanghai hostilities had ceased. She afterwards made a tour of the North-West Provinces and described her experiences in a book.

AMERICA'S CUP DEFENDER

Newport (Rhode Island), July 7. The New York Yacht Club race committee has elected Mr. Harold Vanderbilt's yacht, Ranger, to defend the America's Cup against the British challenger, Mr. T. O. M. Sopwith's Endeavour II. Ranger was chosen after exhaustive tests against Mr. Gerard Lambert's Yankee.

ROYALTY AT THE TATTOO

There was a thrilling moment when the vast audience joined in singing the National Anthem and then cheered and cheered again as the King stood smiling at the salute with the Queen at his side. The King wore the scarlet mess dress uniform of a Field Marshal. The Queen was in an afternoon gown of her favourite shade of blue, with a small hat of the same colour. The King put on a grey great-coat to protect himself against the cold night air, and the Queen pulled a fur wrap around her shoulders as she watched the magnificent colourful spectacle.

Official figures show that the total attendance at this year's Tattoo has broken all records: 621,500 have seen the show, an increase of 135,000 on the previous highest, which was reached last year.

Altogether, 63,275 vehicles passed through the car parks during this year's performance.

REPRESENTATIVE OAKS

Their Majesties were received at Windsor by Mr. E. H. Savill, Deputy Ranger of the Park, and Sir Ulrick Alexander, Keeper of the Privy Purse. They were conducted to seats near the oak which the King was to plant, and the various High Commissioners and other representatives of the Dominions were presented. His Majesty then shovelled some of the loose earth round his tree on to the roots, and the Empire representatives did likewise. After the ceremony the party walked back to Royal Lodge, where the King and Queen entertained the Empire representatives at tea.

The oaks planted represent the following territories:—Canada, the United Kingdom, Newfoundland, Gibraltar, Bermuda, Cyprus, Palestine, Transjordan, Nyasaland, Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, Malta, Gambia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Aden, Somaliland, Sierra Leone, British Honduras, St. Lucia, Grenada, Leeward Islands, Gold Coast, Uganda, Nigeria, Barbados, Kenya, Tanganyika.

India, Burma, Hong Kong, Perils, Zanzibar, Ceylon, Kedah, St. Vincent, Trinidad and Tobago, British Guiana, Basutoland, Bechuanaland Protectorate, and Swaziland, St. Helena, South Africa, Seychelles, Perak, Pahang, Kelantan, Trengganu, North Borneo, Selangor, Mauritius, Negri Sembilan, Johore, Western Pacific Territories, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Brunei, Straits Settlements, Sarawak, Australia, and New Zealand.

SUNDERLAND'S GREAT SEASON

Cup Winners Make Profit Of Nearly £4,000

The F.A. Cup winners, Sunderland F.C., made a profit of nearly £4,000 last season, or £2,384 more than in the previous season.

The directors' report reads:—"The directors desire to refer, in the first place, to the great victory of the first team at Wembley on May 1. How often have all interested in the fortunes of Sunderland F.C. wondered is that 'elusive cup' ever going to be ours for a season? At long last we are the holders of it. It is true to say, without any idle boast, that the victory is popular in the football world, and as to what the people of Sunderland and district think it is only necessary to consider the enthusiastic crowds who went to every match, all of which excepting one were drawn from home (there were two replays at Sunderland), and the boisterous demonstration on the arrival of the team in Sunderland on May 3."

The profit for the season is £3,993 18s. or £2,384 18s. 2d. more than in 1935-36. This sum is arrived at after provision has been made for income-tax (£2,576) and depreciation (£2,523 4s. 8d.) written off the new stand. The gross receipts are less by nearly £4,000. Two postponed matches, viz. those with Middlesbrough and Manchester City, account for nearly the whole of this, but as a set-off the net proceeds from the Cup

WHITE AND SILVER FOR SCOTTISH ROYAL COURTS

For the first time in 26 years Scottish debutantes are to make their curtsies at an evening Court in the Palace of Holyroodhouse. The late King George V. and Queen Mary held their first and only evening Court in Scotland on July 15, 1911.

By their visit to Edinburgh the King and Queen are following the precedent set by George IV. and King Edward VII., both of whom honoured the Scottish Capital immediately after their Coronation. But as both these monarchs gave afternoon Courts, or Drawing Rooms, as they are more familiarly known, the two Courts to be held in July are important, not only socially, but historically.

This will be the first occasion on which a Scottish Queen has received the curtsies of her young country-women in the land of her forebears. In addition, the evening Court of 1911 is the only one which has been held at Holyroodhouse since it became the residence of royalty.

It was, of course, the late King George V. and Queen Mary who made of the Palace a real home. Actually, when King Edward and Queen Alexandra held their Drawing Room there in 1907, they were not in residence at the Palace, but stayed at Dalkeith House, the home of the Buccleuch family driving to Edinburgh every day for various engagements.

Tuckey's Touch—And Go

An Artistic Japanese

It seemed to many of the spectators that C. R. D. Tuckey very nearly played himself into Britain's Davis Cup team as a singles player by his fine show at Beckenham, writes a Home correspondent. To beat John Olliff, "Dicky" Ritchie, E. Surface, the American, and finally run Jiro Yamagishi to three sets was quite a good week's work. But I daresay the two selectors, Roper Barrett and "Skipper" Stowe, who watched Tuckey's play so closely in the final, will deduct several marks for four main failures to win when at 5-3 he had match point in the ninth game of the final set.

But what a shock for any man to find his opponent "drop-shotting" him when failure to achieve the stroke meant defeat.

THE DROP SHOT

This drop shot, which saved the game and the match for Jiro Yamagishi, was characteristic of the brilliant Japanese player. What daring, what gambling with fate, but all through the match it seemed as if love of the ornate on the part of this artist from the East forced him to take unnecessary risks with spectacular strokes when simple ones would have served his purpose just as well.

For some time people have wondered why such a brilliant player as Yamagishi, who regained the Kent title he held in 1935, does not win more big tournaments. Now we know. But one day he will win something very big.

HARDY BOY SCOUTS

Two Canton boy scouts, Kwok Shiu-shue and a companion, members of the 101st Troop China Boy Scouts, arrived in Hong Kong from Canton on Tuesday in their rowing dinghy. The craft is at present in the care of the Harbour Department.

Kwok had two companions when they left Canton on July 2 but one of them had to stop his journey when they arrived at Whampoa.

Kwok and his other companion experienced many difficulties including typhoon conditions before they reached the Colony. Despite their very trying experiences, there is a possibility that these two young adventurers will attempt a trip to Swatow.

"PAVILLON OF PEACE" DESTROYED

Paris, July 7. The "Pavillon of Peace" on the Paris Exhibition grounds, which was to have been officially opened on July 7, was destroyed by a mysterious fire. Tableaux glorifying the achievements of the League of Nations were almost completely ravaged by the flames.

Although an investigation was immediately started, the cause of the fire is still not known. It is, however, regarded as highly probable that it was an act of sabotage.

competition show an increase of £13,200.

The directors make the following recommendation: Payment of a dividend of 7½ per cent to the shareholders, less tax, and that £2,000 be placed to the credit of the Debenture Redemption Fund, which will reduce the Debenture stock to £24,000.

Association Football

CHARGES AGAINST WOLVES

Sir Charles Mander, president, and Mr. A. H. Oakley, chairman, representing Wolverhampton Wanderers at a meeting of F.A. members at Llandudno, agreed that the action of the Football Association Disciplinary Committee in banning the Wolves' recently arranged Continental tour was justified.

The meeting, attended by Messrs. C. E. Sutcliffe, W. C. Cuff and T. H. Kirkup, representing the F.A., was held at the request of the Wolves, who asked for a full explanation of the charges of rough play that led to the banning of their tour.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. S. F. Rous, Secretary of the F.A., stated:

"The action of the Disciplinary Committee was explained and the record of the club's players produced and compared with that of other clubs."

"The representatives of Wolverhampton Wanderers agreed that that the action of the Disciplinary Committee was justified and gave an assurance as to the future."

STRANGE CASE OF EUPHEMIA TODD

Mistake In Cathedral
Exhumation

It was reported recently that a fragment of a churchman's robe about 600 years old, a small coin 300 years old, and two bronze pins, with the skeleton of an early Scottish Churchman, had been discovered in a tomb in St. Andrews Cathedral. In the north transept men examining the floor found, about a foot and a half under the paving stones in the most northern chapel, a large slab of stone, clamped by iron clasps to a kind of sarcophagus. The find was regarded as one of the highest importance, for St. Andrews Cathedral, built between the twelfth and fourteenth centuries, was Scotland's greatest ecclesiastical centre until the Reformation. It was the see of the Scottish Primate and the shrine for the relics of Scotland's patron saint. After the Reformation the building fell into decay, and many of its precious possessions were lost under tons of debris.

From time to time important discoveries have been made, and Mr. J. S. Richardson (Edinburgh), of H.M. Board of Works, supervising the opening of the tomb. It took half a dozen workmen to lift up the heavy stone slab. Under a layer of dry earth was found a much-decayed wooden coffin containing the skeleton, apparently, of a man with a very narrow skull and high cheek bones. Resting on the forehead were two bronze pins, and near by was a small coin. At the side of the head was what appeared to be a minute particle of the vestment of a Churchman, and the presumption was that the skeleton was that of a prominent Church dignitary, probably a Bishop.

When the search was continued in the afternoon a surprise awaited the excavators. Mr. Richardson, lying full length along the stone parapet, and carefully scraping the earth away from the skeleton, suddenly announced that what the party were gazing at was the skeleton, not of a Bishop, but of a woman. At first his announcement was received with incredulity, but when more earth had been removed from the breast a name-plate came to view. It bore the inscription "Euphemia Todd." Mr. Richardson explained to the amazed onlookers that the woman was probably buried during the eighteenth century and her coffin placed in the stone tomb and clamped down to foil the "resurrection-men." It had nothing to do with the medieval cathedral. The supposed fragment of vestment was just a piece of the ornate covering on the coffin, and the bronze pins were in the dead woman's hair. The problem solved, the earth was returned and the massive slab replaced.

DOJIMA MARU ENQUIRY

Lo and W. T. Stanton, heard evidence from Mr. S. Simpson and Mr. S. Pollock, both of the Tak-koo Dockyard, Dr. Begbie, and Mr. S. R. Kerr, Secretary of the Hong Kong Club, at the Central Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Pollock, foreman of the metal department of Tak-koo Docks, formally deposed that the test plates exhibited in Court were those of the Dojima Maru and had been prepared by Mr. T. E. Jackson, Government Marine Surveyor.

Mr. S. Simpson, metallurgist, Tak-koo Docks, in evidence expressed his opinion as to the cause of the explosion. He told the Court that the steel boiler might have been cracked for some years and occasional overhauling would widen the crack although there were no surface signs to that effect in this case. Witness also stated that the water in the boiler acted as a wedge thus causing the explosion without warning.

Dr. R. S. Begbie, Assistant Government Bacteriologist, testified that the body of the seaman, identified in his presence as Kwok Mun, was badly smashed. On examination of the body no charred parts could be found which would have been seen had there been high explosives. Altogether he examined 31 bodies and only twelve showed signs of scalding.

Mr. S. R. Kerr, Secretary of the Hong Kong Club, gave evidence of finding a body which had been blown onto the Club's premises from the launch.

The further hearing was adjourned to July 14, at 2.30 p.m. Mr. J. T. Prior is holding a watching brief in the interests of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha while Mr. O. E. C. Marton is representing the Hong Kong and Whampoa Dock Company Limited. The Police are represented by Acting Inspector Hopkins assisted by Det. Sgt. A. F. Estall.

Hong Kong Clipper Arrives At Kai Tak

all the way" but arrived looking very fresh and charming and not in the least tired. She expects to leave for Shanghai next Friday.

A large quantity of mail was brought to Hong Kong, and after this had been handed over to Post Office authorities, and Cooks had taken possession of the luggage, and all the passengers had departed in the Hong Kong Hotel bus, the officials at Kai Tak began to get busy.

TEST CARRIED OUT

On this occasion they had arranged to test the landing apparatus (Beaching-gear is the technical term). Three large wheels heavily tyre were ready for attachment (one at each side and one at the tail) after which the plane is towed across a strip of water to the other slipway and run up onto dry land. This is what will always be done in case of typhoon, or very rough weather.

NEW TYPE

The Hong Kong Clipper with its four big propellers and roomy cabin is an imposing machine, but will be nothing to the new type which is under construction already in the U.S.A.

The new type is to be a "double-decker" capable of carrying 60 passengers and with sleeping accommodation for 40. It will have a regular Captain's bridge for the pilot (just like a ship) and from this it will be possible for the pilot to walk along the wings.

Tea Market Improves

Amsterdam, July 7.

The international tea market improved from 82 1/2 to 87 1/2 per cent. consequent on an increase of export quota. The average price at Amsterdam tea sales last week rose to 64 per cent. and it is hoped that the prices will continue to rise. The paper "Telegraf" states that restrictions will remain in force. The present regulations will come to an end in March, 1938, and it is believed here that the new agreement, concerning which negotiations have long since been in progress, will include British East Africa.

BIG YEAR FOR BOY SCOUTS

U KOMT?

U Komt? is the slogan of the Dutch Boy Scouts who are preparing for the World Jamboree to be held during the first two weeks in August, near the picturesque village of Vogelsang, Bloemendaal, Holland. The catchy slogan, which means "Are you coming?" in English, adorns thousands of posters, pamphlets, and advertising matter by which the Dutch Boy Scouts are inviting the public to see one of the world's greatest camps.

"Are you coming to the World Jamboree?" is equally as popular among the British Scouts when they meet at the various Scout events and gatherings all over the country.

Twenty-five thousand Scouts from all parts of the world will be taking part in the Jamboree—40 ambassadors of goodwill—representing 24 million Boy Scouts in 49 countries.

EIGHT SPECIAL SHIPS

Eight special boats have been chartered by the Boy Scouts Association for the transport of the Scouts to Holland.

Two ships, belonging to the General Steamship Navigation Company, will leave Tilbury on Friday, 30th July, at 8.30 a.m. and 9.30 a.m. respectively, carrying approximately 1,000 Scouts in each.

Two ships, belonging to the General Steamship Navigation Company, will leave Great Yarmouth on Friday, 30th July, at 5 a.m. and 6.45 a.m. respectively, carrying approximately 700 Scouts in each.

Two ships, belonging to the Southern Railway, will leave Dover on Friday, 30th July, at 11 p.m. and 11.40 p.m. respectively, carrying approximately 1,000 Scouts in each.

Two ships, being arranged for by the L.N.E.R., will leave Harwich, one on Thursday, 29th July, at 11 p.m. and one Friday, 30th July, at 8 a.m., carrying approximately 1,000 Scouts in each. The four railway companies have given the organisers every assistance and have arranged special trains from all parts of England. To distinguish the trains they have been given names and numbers. The time schedules are not yet definite.

SCOUTS' POCKET MONEY

Scouts have been advised to Bank their pocket money, which can be drawn out from the Jamboree Bank in Holland. Messrs. R. Mees and Zoonen are the official bankers at the Jamboree.

The National Provincial Bank in England, the Royal Bank of Scotland in Scotland, the Munster and Leinster Bank of Ireland in Ireland and the Irish Free State and Ulster Bank in Northern Ireland, are prepared to receive money, and a paying-in form to be used by Scoutmasters is in course of preparation.

All money must be paid into the English, Scottish and Irish Banks on or before the 18th July. The money paid in will be credited to the Troop on the Scoutmaster calling at the Jamboree Bank.

NAVAL OFFICER'S LOSS

Capt. G. R. Dundas, of H.M.S. Folkestone and of No. 5 Garden Terrace, first floor, reported to the police yesterday that he lost a Gold Half-Hunter watch, the value being £25, between his house and the Royal Naval Yard between June 1 and yesterday.

RESTORATION OF ALLOWANCES

"OPEN MIND"

Sir Atholl MacGregor Interviewed

Sir Atholl MacGregor, Chief Justice of Hong Kong who is Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Government to inquire into the restoration of the "temporary allowances" for members of the public service, arrived in Singapore last week by the P. and O. Naldera, accompanied by Lady MacGregor.

"I have come here with an open mind," Sir Atholl told a "Malayan Tribune" representative on board, "and I cannot give any indication as to the likely outcome of the investigation. I have nothing to go by, except just a few papers which have been sent up to me."

CONDITIONS IN HONG KONG

Sir Atholl, questioned about the conditions of "allowances" in Hong Kong mentioned that better times were prevailing there, and that from to-day to the end of June, that levy on salaries which had been in force in Hong Kong for the last 18 months, would be taken off.

The levy, he said, had been on a variable scale, ranging from five per cent. to 12 1/2 per cent. In addition, there was an additional "cut" in the form of the dollar fixation.

"We were paid, at one time, 1s. 6d. for the dollar, although the actual value of the dollar was only then 1s. 3d."

"In the last three months—April, May and June—the fixation rate was 1s. 3d. Therefore, when it was 1s. 6d., we got 33 odd for a pound, whereas according to the actual value it should have been over 11s."

SALARY LEVY RESTORED

"So we were hit both ways. From to-day, however, the levy is being taken off, but we are still being paid at 1s. 3d."

"Actually however, this fixation rate makes very little difference, because when I left Hong Kong, the exchange rate was 1s. 2 1/2/32d., which gives a difference of only 7/32 of a penny in the dollar."

"The dollar fixation rate is fixed each quarter by the Governor with the approval of the Legislative Council, and it may be that, if conditions improve in Hong Kong, the next rate will be the actual prevailing rate, which would mean that we will have our nominal salary, actually paid to us."

"It was always understood however," Sir Atholl went on, "that we had to make our contribution when bad times were prevailing."

SYNTHETIC LEATHER

Berlin, July 7.

A report on the new German synthetic leather was read by Dr. O. Jordan on Tuesday at the Reichs Congress of German Chemists at Frankfurt Main.

Dr. Jordan declared that the new artificial leather had nothing in common with what has in years past been known in Germany and the world as artificial leather, but would on the contrary satisfy all demands that could be made on natural leather, and besides that is permeable to air—
